Ehlers & Co., Open Their New Store Today.

The handsome Campbell block, on Fort street, between Hotel and King, to be occupied by Ehlers & Co., will be opened today and the finest stock of dry goods ever shown in the city will be displayed.

The store is conveniently arranged for the customers, ample space being set apart for cases and shelving. An innovation is the dark room, where ladies may examine silks for evening wear and see how the goods will appear in lamp light.

"No where in Honolulu can such a stock of goods be found at such reasonable prices," said the manager of the firm yesterday, "and we propose selling them at prices that will win the public. Nowhere in Honolulu can be found such a store for the display of dry goods."

The store is commodious, and everything is in view of the customers. A large corps of clerks will be in attendance and business will be attended to with dispatch.
